ALMA MATER

*Oh, Alma Mater, now to thee we sing,
The song we sing is true
Our school days fondest memories always bring.
And so we sing to you.*

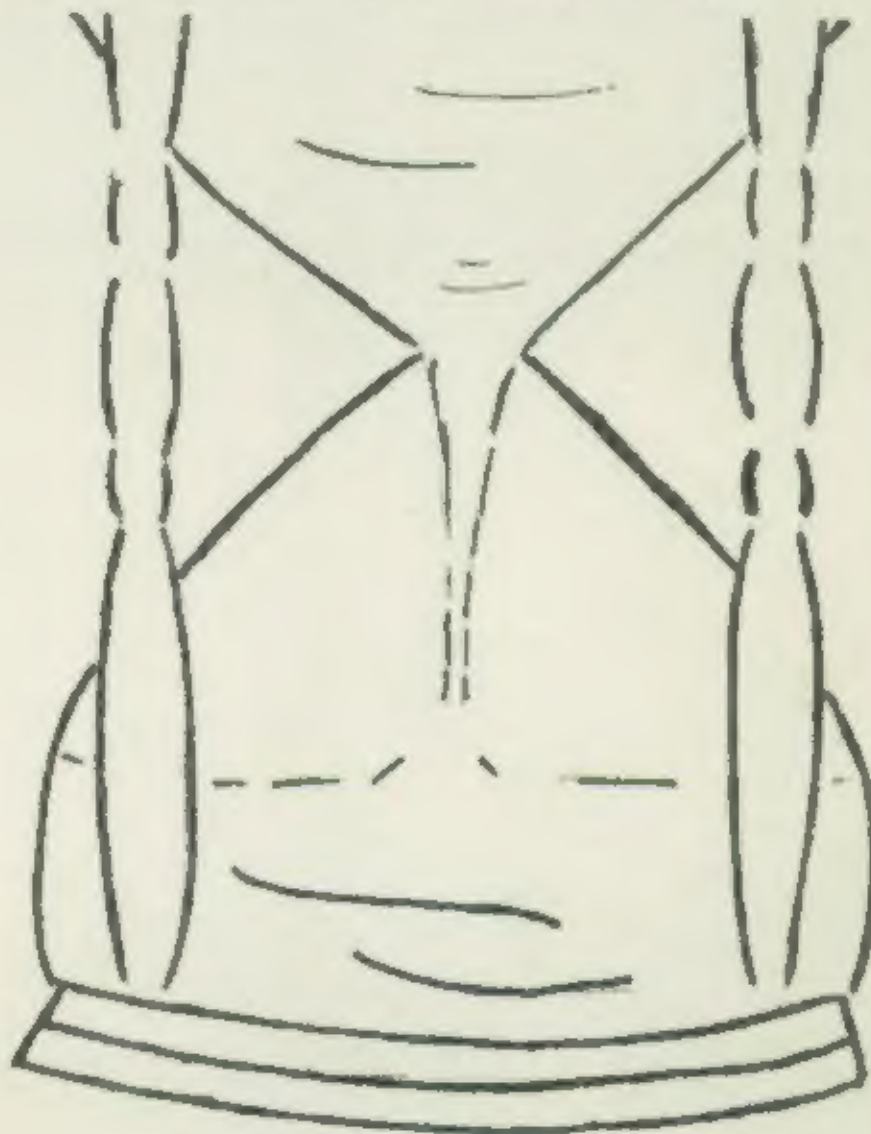

*The days may come and go,
Our thoughts we always know
Will go back to the days we loved the best,
Our days at L. H. S.*

LAFAYETTE HIGH SCHOOL
LAFAYETTE, LOUISIANA

Foreword

As the Sands of Time run their course, may this Annual of 1953 recall pleasant memories of days at Lafayette High.

The Annual Staff

Dedication

To the Seniors, June 1953 marked the end of high school careers. To Miss Regina Poche, it marked the end of a seventeen year stay at the Lafayette High School, and a retirement from the teaching profession.

To a teacher who has instructed, encouraged, and led us, who has inspired us to find our better selves and at the same time been one of us, it is exceedingly difficult to say goodbye. For her willingness to understand, to laugh, to give freely of her time and of herself, we are extremely grateful.

It is with sincere respect, love and gratitude that are so rightfully hers, that we dedicate this 1953 LION'S DIN to . . . MISS REGINA POCHÉ.

Sincerely yours

Seniors^{*}

THE SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Seated at the wheel of the Class of '33 is Jack Patin, President. He is assisted in steering the class by the other officers: Ann Baggett, Second Vice President, and W. K. Rainbolt, Treasurer, check the motor. The First Vice President, Robert McKnight, makes sure everything holds together. Sally Long, Reporter, and Betty Heard, Secretary, help to give it a shove. With such a group steering the Class, it is no wonder that the Seniors of 1933 enjoyed a wonderful ride from September to June!

Shoeless students entered the dance through white swan doors with large socks and words "Soc Hop" painted the top. The top of the gym centered with a large sock everyone participated in the scramble when it ripped hundreds of little balloons out. Small wooden and socks were sold as souvenirs.
